QUEER SCREEN SCREENING - CUPCAKES

CUPCAKES

Thursday May 8, 6.45pm
Event Cinemas George Street

Come celebrate Eurovision with a fun new film from Queer Screen favourite Eytan Fox (YOSSI, THE BUBBLE). Karaoke after the film in the Set Bar, with special host to be announced

As light and tasty as its title suggests, CUPCAKES is one of the feel-good comedies of the year. With music by Babydaddy (Scissor Sisters) and colourful styling à la Almodovar, this hilarious and touching film takes a Eurovision-style song contest as a jumping-off point for a moving story of friendship, music and community.

In Tel Aviv, six friends (gay, straight, successful and not-so-successful) gather every year to watch the Universong competition. Like most viewers, they are appalled by the quality of the Israeli entry. In an attempt to cheer up the heartbroken Anat - whose marriage is sinking while her business is thriving - they record a pop song on a smartphone. But when one member of the group enters the video in next year's contest, the unlikely group is thrust into the spotlight as Israel's new entry. How will the old friends survive the cut-throat world of the pop-music business?

BEST OF MGFF AT RIVERSIDE PARRAMATTA - FROM TODAY

Tonight is Opening Night for THE BEST OF MARDI GRAS FILM FESTIVAL AT RIVERSIDE PARRAMATTA

Make sure you come along for the hilarious opening film G.B.F., which was a big MGFF hit.

Next up BORN THIS WAY, screening on Saturday, shines a light on our LGBT brothers and sisters in the West African country of Cameroon. It is a truly inspiring piece. PIT STOP, also on Saturday night, sold out at MGFF, won countless festival awards, and is the love story of this festival.

VALENTINE ROAD is our first screening on Sunday, and many have called it the documentary of the year. It's truly extraordinary, and sure to get you talking. WHO'S AFRAID OF VAGINA WOLF, ends the festival on Sunday evening. You've heard of a coming-of-age film come witness the first coming-of-middle-age film. A truly hilarious lesbian comedy.
