REACHING FOR THE MOON
OPENING NIGHT: THU 13 FEB, 7PM

Australia's own Miranda Otto shines in this seductive biopic of famous American poet Elizabeth Bishop. Bishop escapes New York to find inspiration in the heart of Rio de Janeiro's Bossa Novan culture. She does not, however, expect to be drawn into a tempestuous relationship with architect Lota de Macedo Soares in which the two women are tested by jealousy, separation and military coups.

OUT IN THE LINE-UP THU 20 FEB, 7PM

Don't miss the World Premiere of this documentary that shines a torch on the taboo of being gay in the surf world. David Wakefield is a former state champion surfer who ended his career early in fear that his peers would discover his sexuality. 20 years later David is back in the spotlight after he publicly comes out in front of hundreds of thousands at Mardi Gras.

SNAILS IN THE RAIN SUN 16 FEB, 9PM

International model for Armani and D&G, Yoav Reuveni swaps the catwalk for the film set. He plays Boaz, a young man living a peaceful life in Tel Aviv with his beautiful girlfriend. Every day, Boaz waits by his mailbox for news of his scholarship application, instead, he begins to receive letters from an anonymous, obsessive male admirer. Presented by Dayenu.

FREE FALL FRI 14 FEB, 9PM and SUN 23 FEB, 7PM

The German BROKEBACK MOUNTAIN. With a promising career in the police force, a girlfriend and a baby on the way, Marc's life seems to be on track – until he meets the handsome and seductive Kay at police training camp. Marc begins to develop intense and confusing feelings for him, and the two cops begin a secret relationship. Soon Marc is living a double life.

CROC-A-DYKE DUNDEE, THE LEGEND OF DAWN O'DONNELL Closing Night: SUN 23 FEB, 7.30PM

Dawn O'Donnell was a penniless lesbian in 1950s Australia. She wanted money, power and sex, but of course it was the dark ages. Women were third class citizens, lesbians practically invisible. Everything was illegal, and you couldn't even get a drink after 6.00pm. Homosexuality was criminalised, and police brutality was commonplace. From this Dawn built an empire.

FILMS AVAILABLE TO YOUNGER AUDIENCES

Some of the films in this year's program are suitable for a younger audience - and adults too, of course.

GEOGRAPHY CLUB

Australian Premiere. Presented by ReachOut.com

In a small American town a group of students create a secret school club for gay and lesbian teens. They call it the Geography Club, hoping nobody else in their right mind would ever want to join. Members of the club include a handsome 16-year-old football player Russell, who knows he is gay but is still going on dates with girls while hiding his secret relationship with football quarterback Kevin. Kevin will do anything to prevent his teammates from discovering his feelings for Russell. Min and Terese tell everyone that they're "just really good friends." And then there's lke, who can't figure out who he is or who he wants to be.

G.B.F. + YEAH KOWALSKI!

G.B.F. is selling very well, so grab your tickets to this teen comedy now. When comic book-loving teen Tanner (Michael J Willett) is outed against his will as the only gay at high school, his flamboyant best friend seethes with jealousy. The popular girls at school then fight it out to secure him as a 'Gay Best Friend,' which will assure one of them the prom queen crown.

YEAH KOWALSKI! is a great short film screening before G.B.F. When Gabe's 'anonymous' question about his still smooth armpits is selected to be read aloud in sex-ed class, Gabe goes to great lengths to impress his classmate crush, Shane, at Penny Foster's birthday party.
